Dyckoy bounces back with new song

ON SEPTEMBER 10, 2017 7:10 PM / IN ENTERTAINMENT / COMMENTSBy Iyabo Aina

Nigerian veteran singer , beat maker and story crooner is set to return to the Nigerian music industry after his long vacation from the Nigeria entertainment scene.

Dyckoy

Oton Mccoy popularly known as Dyckoy promised returning with a new hit after releasing several hits songs like “Skelebe” under G-Kindom entertainment in Ireland- Dublin. The song was received as the Abidjan national anthem, subsequently released another single “Jèjè” under OGB Records , which also got positive reviews and gained massive radio play , also played on Abidjan national Tv costantly.

Also, recall that Dyckoy’s song titled “Story” released under Didi Audio in 1990, went nation wide in a brief and later banned by the Nigerian police force before the coming of The National Broadcasting Commission (NBC), after which Oton Mccoy's lawyer hinted his client to file an appeal to the (NBC) to consider the lost on that release.

According to reports, Dyckoy is recently working on lovers rock album compilation following his unfriendly experience in the past with the Nigeria authority.
